National Parks Galore!

Let us introduce you to the greatest, the most beautiful, and the little known. Outdoor wonders abound in these grand regions and there's no lack of natural beauty anywhere along this route. Explore the desert regions of Utah as you hike and relax in Arches, Canyonlands, Capitol Reef and Zion National Parks. Complete with a variety of unique geologic features including the famous bridges and arches. This is an area that offers beauty from the subtle to the grand. Witness history as you tour Monument Valley, home of the Navajo and famous for its movies. Delve even further back as you explore the ancient cliff dwellings of Mesa Verde. Enjoy a ride on the Durange railway and discover the history of the pioneers that settled this area. Of course a trip to the West wouldn't be complete without a stop at the Grand Canyon. And from there the journey continues on through the hot Death Valley to the lush greenery of Yosemite National Park.

San Francisco and Coast

Travel along the brilliant Pacific from the quaint seaside town of Monterey to the heart of San Francisco and the lovely Golden Gate Bridge. Wildlife abounds along this coastline, birds and sealions are a frequent sight while whales can be spotted offshore. Walk along sandy beaches and admire the rugged cliffs and quiet solitude that makes the West Coast so very memorable.
